DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (IF KNOWN) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

This house is similar to 832 Tyson Street, but reversed. The entrance also has applied pilasters, but they are topped by a piece of millwork decorated with scallops and a molding at the top. The door has 15 panels in "Spanish style" and no transom. One of the window baskets has been removed to permit installation of an airconditioner. The shutters are again too narrow, those on the first floor were too short as well and have been clumsily lengthened. The brick stoop with iron railing, this time has 3 steps at each end. It is shared with 836 Tyson Street.
